

Sunday 19/10

Dear Mom & Orey,

Didn't have time to write you during the week, so am taking this opportunity of writing. I'm home with Pearl now & we're just taking it easy today, sitting around & listening to the radio.

Well, I have only one more week to go! Everything is finished up now. We've flown all our missions, & the last week is spent turning in our equipment, & drawing out new equipment. I have my uniforms already, & they sure look swell & fit like a glove.

This week we have a flight party for the fellows & instructors on Monday night, & a formal dance on Thursday night. Friday, we are discharged from the army, & are civilians for one day. We have to move off the field Friday morning. Then, Saturday morning is graduation, & (providing I get a leave) we expect to leave Sunday morning & be home Sunday night.

How are you & everyone else in New York? Pearl is fine, & anxious to get home. I wasn't able to get off the post for the holidays, but we did go to Rosh Hashbona services at the chapel.

The weather here is really nice now. We have nice moderate days, & cold nights. We have heat, & it's still necessary to use a couple of blankets & a quilt at night. It's a relief after the hot summer we've had here.

That's about all the news right now. I hope to see you next week, & I'll be able to answer all your questions.

Regards to everyone at home, & love from
Pearl &

Matty
