Dear Mom,

Haven't received any mail from you during the past week, because we moved a couple of times. Just moved again yesterday, & expect to stay in one place now, for a while anyway.

This place is just about the same as our last, although it is newer, & a little warmer. The quarters are newer & better, & the food is just about as good.

There isn't very much I can write about from here. All that we do now, is fly. However, when we are not flying, we need all the rest we can get. There isn't too much opportunity for relaxation, but we try to get as much as possible.

We have an officers' club, & then there are always movies every night.

How have you been, & how is everyone else at home. I guess the weather is getting warmer by now, so you'll all feel better.
I imagine you're still busy at your office, & still looking for more money. Well, I expect to get a raise soon, too.

Remember me to everyone at home, & let me hear from you. I guess I'll get your letters one of these days somehow.

Love,

Marty
