

Tuesday, May '6

Dear Ceil,

Received your letter of May first, about four days ago, but this is the first chance I've had to answer you. I was very glad to hear from you, so I thought you had forgotten me.

There isn't much news to write about from this end. As you know by now, we moved about two weeks ago, & since then have been kept very busy. About all we do is fly, sleep, eat, & rest a little. Today is our free day, but we'll be off again bright & early tomorrow. It's not too bad, however, because the more we fly, the sooner we get back home.

Pearl writes me that she has been seeing quite a bit of you & Al recently. I'm glad of that, & I want to thank you both for taking her out. I appreciate it very much, & maybe sometime I'll be able to do the same for you.

I see from your letter that you are still working. I don't know why you do it if you don't have to,

but I guess you must like it.

No, I haven't gotten any mail from Melvin, probably because he didn't write. If he had written so long ago, I would have received it by this time.

tell that's about all the news up to now.
I'll let you know anything new that comes up. Give my regards to Al, & let me hear from you again soon.

Marty
