Dear Mom,

Haven't received mail from you for about two weeks, now, but I'm writing as often as I can anyway. During the past week, we've gotten no mail at all, but I'm hoping every day, that some does come in.

Just a few lines to let you know that everything is all right here. Nothing new to write about. Still kept pretty busy flying, with little time for much else. I'm well, & don't think I've lost any much weight at all. Of course, I wish I were back home with Pearl, but I know I have to be patient for a while.

How have you been, & everyone else at home? How is Brenda now? I suppose that she is back home with you now. Haven't heard from anyone for so long, that I feel like I've been cut off from the world.

There's nothing more to write just now. I'll write more when I hear from you. Remember me to everyone at home, & let me hear from all of you very soon.

Love,
Marty
