June 7.

Dear Natalie:

Well heres the letter
I promised to write when I got back here in Pueblo.
It is really cold out here
now, a lot different than home.

I sure did enjoy Thurs.
night out with you. You ought to have seen me
when I finally got home,
boy I was a complete wreck.

Judy was pretty bad
when we got here back
too. I think she was almost gone, she slept over at Pavonis with Frances that night.

Wish you didn't have to go home so early you
and I could have had

Natalie ended up marrying Earle's brother, Jack. My parents.

U. S. ARMY AIR FORCES

a lot more fun together.

Wish you would send me a picture of yourself in the letter you write me.

I had a layover in Chicago and seen Betty Grable and some other stars at a restaurant and seen W. Norman and orchestra on stage, what an orchestra.

Well guess this is all the words I can put together now so will close with love (if you don't mind)
